The Leinster School of Music & Drama Honours Arts Patron with “The Sheila Murphy Music and Drama Scholarship Award”

The Leinster School of Music & Drama (LSMD) at Griffith College have announced the launch of The Sheila Murphy Music and Drama Scholarship Awards in memory of former director of the school, Miss Sheila Murphy.

Originally from Mitchelstown, Co. Cork, Sheila was a cherished member of the team at the LSMD and was appointed to the position of director in the 80s. Very much the essence of the music and drama school, the number of students increased from 3,000 to 15,000 in over 300 centres nationwide under her excellent guidance.

To mark the anniversary of Sheila’s passing, the scholarship serves to pay tribute to the contribution Sheila made to the School and her love for music and drama which spanned over five decades.

Head of Faculty of The Leinster School of Music & Drama, Karen Casey said, “Sheila was an inspiration to the thousands of students who passed through the doors of The Leinster School of Music & Drama. She is sorely missed but I think she would be happy to know that her name will go on to help and inspire future music and drama students and teachers in Ireland.”

These Scholarships will be available from September, to LSMD students who have completed their LSMD Grade 10 to progress to The Certificate in Drama Performance Course QQI 20 Credits (LSMD Drama Associate Diploma). The scholarship has a value of approx. €2500 euro and can be used to pay for the 20 credits programme, or in part payment towards the 45 credit or 60 credit programmes, depending on the number of suitable applicants who apply for the scholarship.

Candidates (18 years of age and over) wishing to apply for the scholarship should apply before 31st August, on-line/by post, include transcripts, a cover letter stating their interest in applying for the scholarship and the name of their music/drama teacher who may also offer a reference for the candidate. Please contact us at The Leinster School of Music & Drama for further details, other terms and conditions apply.
